IN MEMORIAM

On a Friday, March 14, Joel Miller, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, became the first local boy to be killed in action in Vietnam. Spec. 4 Miller died as the result of hostile action while serving as Assistant Patrol Leader in the 14th Infantry of the 25th Division, 2nd Battalion.

Joel was a 1967 graduate of the Primghar High School. He was to be 21 years old on March 19.

The student body and faculty of the Primghar Community School paid tribute to Joel at a special memorial service held March 25 at 12:35 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Services began with the national anthem by the high school band and the Pledge of Allegiance led by Fred Bern. Mr. Beryl Hicks offered the prayer which was followed by the mixed double quartet singing "O Ye People."

High school principal Hans Sorensen presented "Tribute to Joel," and Mr. Hicks followed with a message.

Miss Pauline Houston, high school instructor, gave an appropriate reading after which the high school band played "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

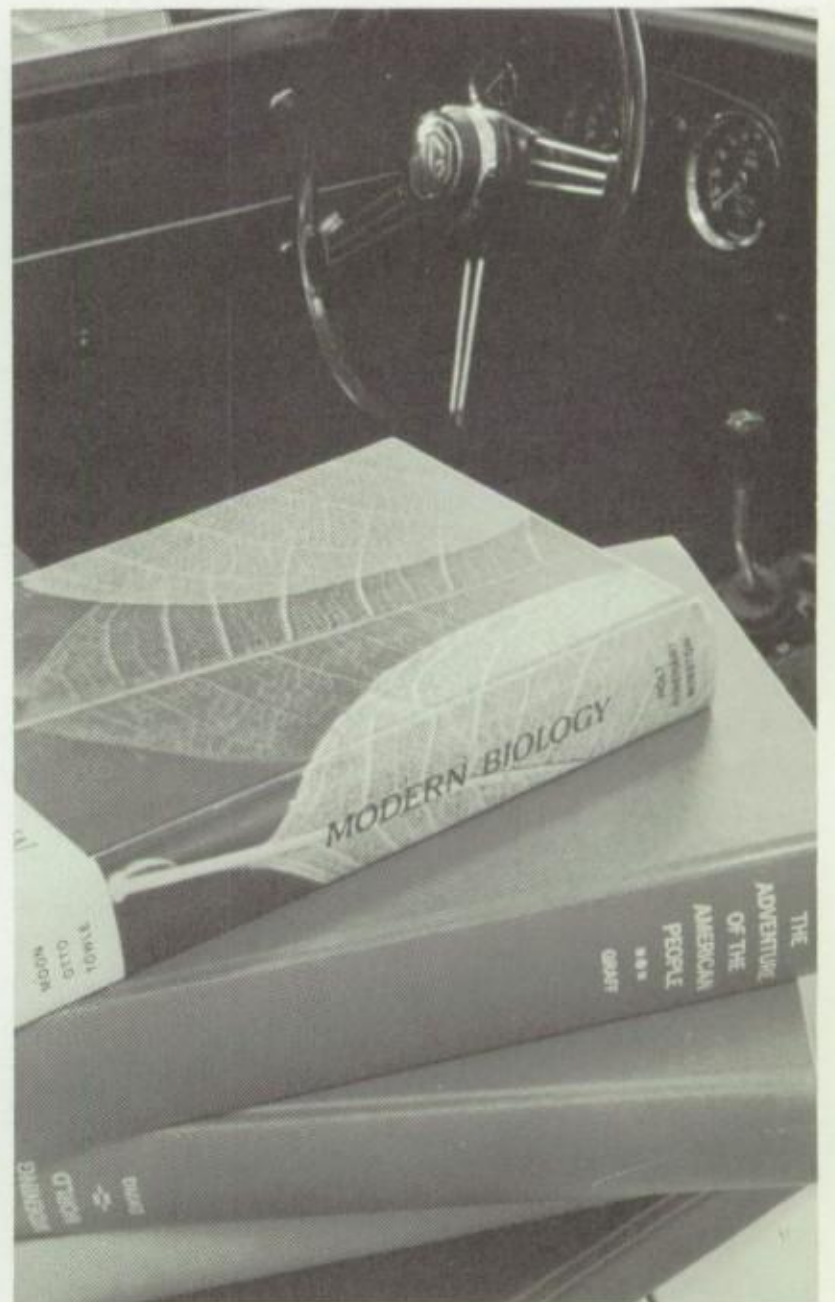

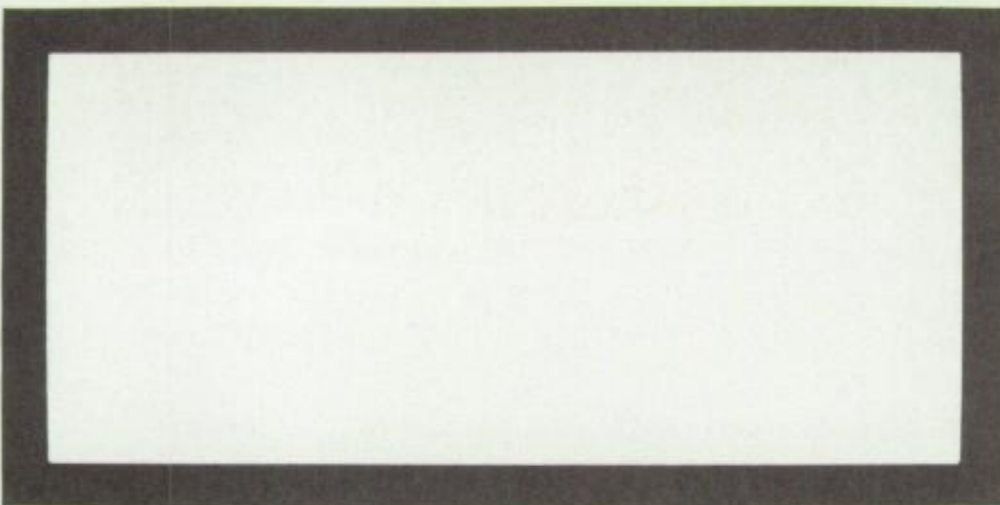

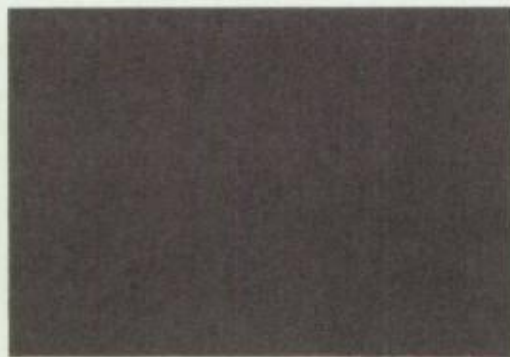

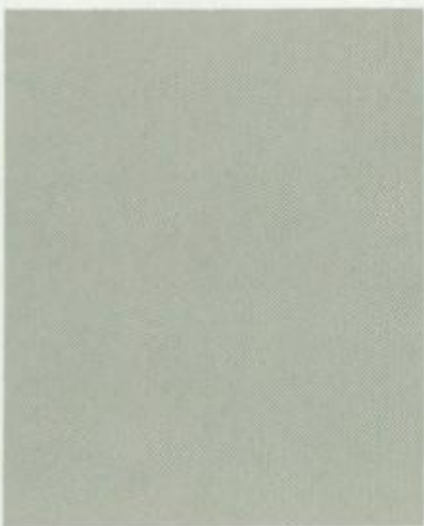

The memorial service was concluded with the playing of Taps by Jim Hopkins.

Nicky Earl Newman, 14, died July 8 at Spirit Lake, Iowa. Nicky, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Newman, was born May 2, 1954, in San Francisco, California.

He attended kindergarten in Sioux City, first grade in Wausaw, Wisconsin, and for the past 7 years had attended grade school here. He was a member of Boy Scout Troop 153 and was working toward his God and Country Award.

Nicky would have been a member of the Freshman Class entering High School.

CLASS HISTORY

In August of 1956, warrants of arrest were delivered to 38 young members of the Primghar community. The charge: lack of education. Thus began the thirteen years of the trials of the class of 1969 in the court system known as the Primghar Community Schools. The original 38 defendants were Dean Armstrong, Edward Aronson, Bradley Bern, Kurt Brown, D. Burnham, R. Clifton, David DeJongh, Jerry DeRidder, Jane Dull, Daryl Ebel, Danny Edwards, Floyd Egdorf, Orville Ginger, Douglas Groen, Cindy Hoppe, Joy Jenkinson, Mary Jenness, Michael Jones, Bradford Kammerer, Gary Kleinheksel, Christine Kraft, Rickie Langholz, Gloria Larsen, William Lorenzen, C. Menke, S. Norman, Reva Parrish, Susan Rold, Gerald Rook, S. Sanders, B. Schuerkamp, Rosanne Shea, Darcy Smith, Jane Sturdevant, James Thompson, Blanche Vaner Tuig, L. Vennema, and Janet Wolf. Our lawyer in the preliminary hearing held that first year was Miss Arthea Hulstein.

The second year, our case was brought before the first grade court. D. Burnham, R. Clifton, C. Menke, S. Norman, S. Sanders, B. Schuerkamp, and L. Vennema had their cases transferred to other court systems, while Linda Brinkert and Debra Johnson had been transferred here. Lawyers for the defense were Mrs. Harms and Mrs. Meyer (Fritzsche).

As the jury in the first grade court was unable to reach a verdict, our case went on to the second grade court. David DeJongh, Jane Dull, Floyd Egdorf, Debra Johnson, Reva Parrish, and Jane Sturdevant were extradited to other areas, while Vicki Albertson, Marjorie Duis, Marvin Einck, Deborah Harries, Nancy Ruschmann, and Mark Thompson joined our group of defendants. In this trial, our counselor was Miss Welhelmi.

The results of the second grade trial were declared invalid on the ground that the jury was not properly sworn in; therefore, our case was moved on to the third grade court. New defendants this year were Beckly Christensen, Margo Hoffman, and Kenny Kern, while Dean Armstrong, Daryl Ebel, Orville Ginger, and Blanche Vander Tuig took their cases to other courts. We hired Miss Weber and Miss Ver Beek as our lawyers for this year.

In the third grade court, we were all found guilty of first degree illiteracy. This being a serious charge with grave penalties, we determined to appeal our case to a higher court. In our new trial, so much new evidence was brought out that it lasted for three years, taking us through the fourth, fifth, and sixth grade courts. During the first year of the trial, we lost Beckly Christensen, Margo Hoffman, and Kenny Kern, and gained Bev K rth and Neva Wilson. Handling our defense was Miss Seivert. In the second year, four people joined our group of defendants: Jane Johannsen, Kolin Kramme, Mark Larson, and Tracy Tjossem. We hired Mrs. Tanner to plead our case for us. In the final year of this trial, two defendants joined us: Peggy Bender and Dennis Berensmann; and two left us: Marvin Einck and Kolin Kramme. The defense lawyers were Mrs. Bornholdt and Mr. Vellinga.

Deborah Harries jumped bail. Our lawyers in that year were Mrs. Tanner and Mr. Tarnasky.

Again we were convicted of an odious crime: insufficient education in the first degree. Desperate now, we appealed our case to the Supreme or High School Court, which was presided over by Justices Devine and Sorensen.

Twenty-seven defendants began the Freshman year of this trial. Those defendants who had left since our conviction in the Junior High courts were Vicki Albertson, Marjorie Duis, Danny Edwards, Joy Jenkinson, Tracy Tjossem, and Neva Wilson. In the Sophomore year of our trial, we gained Pat Anderegg and Trisha Lowry and lost William Lorenzen. In the Junior year, we lost Trisha Lowry. Marilyn Dykstra joined us in our Senior Year, making a total of 28 defendants who anxiously awaited the jury's verdict.

Alas! We were convicted again of insufficient education, and all of us were given life sentences to be spent in pursuing the illusion knowledge, dreaming impossible dreams, and reaching for stars. Determining to meet our fate courageously, we agreed on the motto "Character is the cornerstone of all success" and vowed to wear our prison garb of Regina Blue and Ivy Blue proudly and bravely.

Those students who spent all 13 years in the court system known as the Primghar Community Schools were Edward Aronson, Bradley Bern, Kurt Brown, Jerry DeRidder, Cindy Hoppe, Mary Jenness, Michael Jones, Gary Kleinheksel, Rickie Langholz, Gloria Larsen, Susan Rold, Gerald Rook, Rosanne Shea, Darcy Smith, Jim Thompson, and Janet Wolf.

Departing on Jan. 17, 1969, were Scott Hadden, Dan Kammerer, Mark Kurth, Kenny DeKok, Don Kimball, and not pictured, Jim Norman.

On April 25th our class sponsored the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom with the theme "Sayonara." Decorating the gym, attending the banquet held at the Lutheran Church, and the dance are things worth remembering.

This past year has been very rewarding besides more than fun with its many activities. Homecoming proved to be very successful. Our theme, "Indian Lake" was illustrated by the harvest scene and accompanied by the sound of the "Trade Marx." Sybil Egger, escorted by Scott Hadden, was chosen by our class to be the queen attendant.

Myrna Rosenboom and Stan McDowell represented our class in the Student Council. We'd like to thank our sponsors for the year who were Mrs. Ballard, Miss Heutinck, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Hoel, and Mr. Yeager. always. The dance was provided with the sound of "Billy Redman's Band."

This second year of high school has been fun and rewarding. Our class sponsors Mrs. Klink, Mr. Carlson, and Mr. Kimball helped us with several class projects. Some of these were a sock hop, two booths at the school carnival, and our first prize homecoming float, "Rootin' for a Victory." We also joined the rest of PHS in sponsoring an overseas child. This year has helped to prepare us for next year when we will be upperclassmen with bigger responsibilities. Laurie Sleeper was chosen to represent our class as the Sophomore queen attendant at homecoming.

YOUTH FOR UNDERSTANDING

GUSTAVO STRUNCK
RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL

The Primghar High School welcomed Gustavo Strunck to PHS January 30 by presenting a welcoming assembly.

The program was started by a Brazilian originated song, "Girl From Ipanema," followed by a Spanish choral selection. Mayor Appeldorn presented a brief speech welcoming Gus to our community. Each of the class officers and Mr. Sorenson said a few words of welcome. Mrs. McCauley then told of the experiences and problems they encountered while waiting to meet Gus in Sioux City. Rick Langholz then presented Gus with a key to PHS and wished him happiness during his days here. The dance band concluded the program with a bossa nova selection.

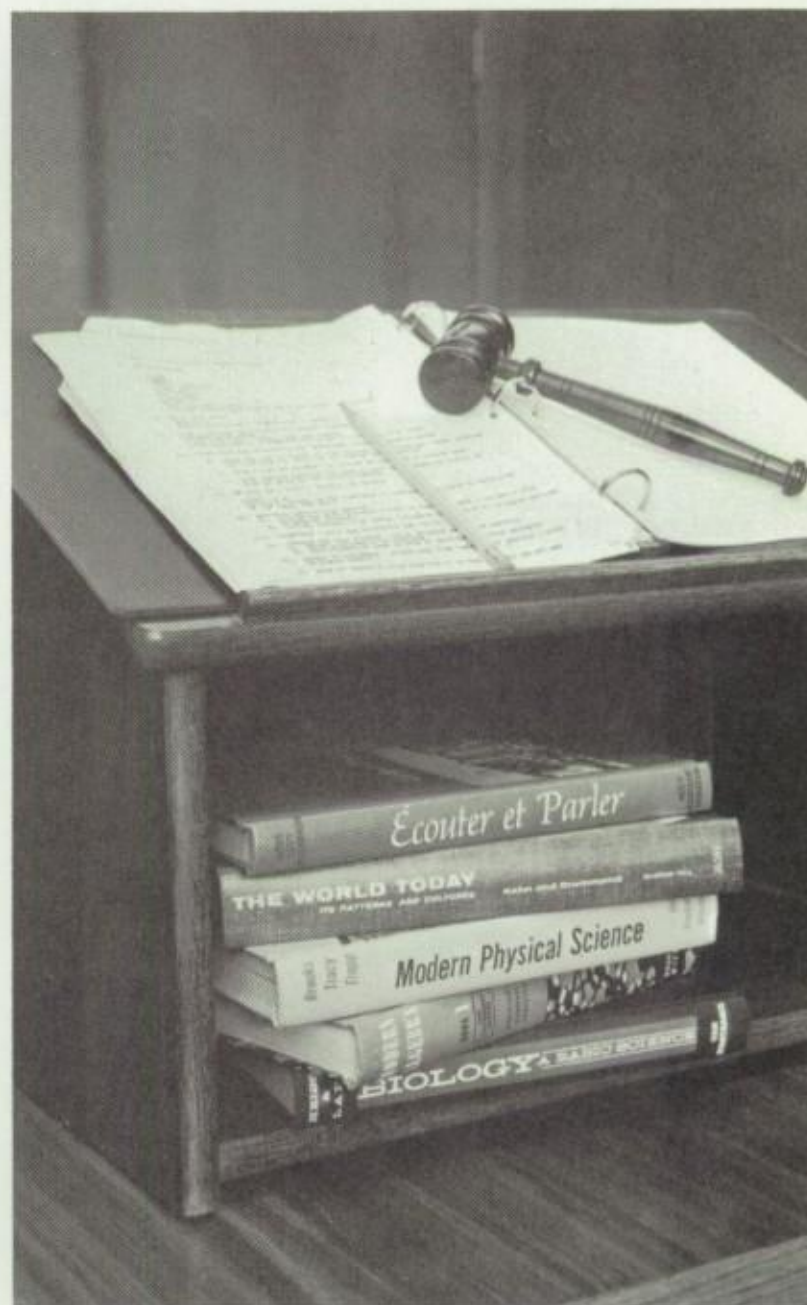

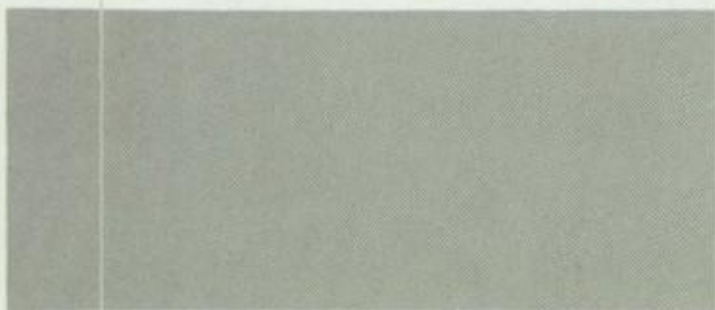

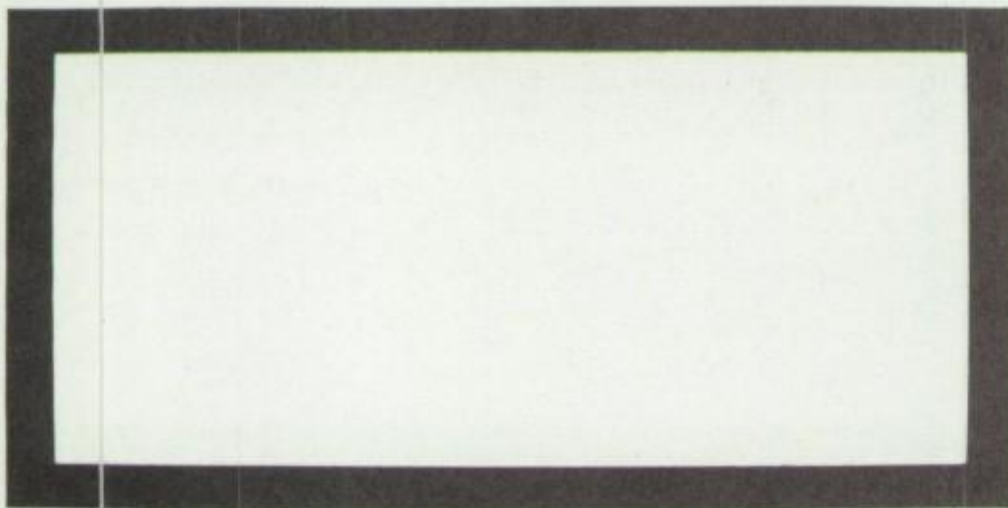

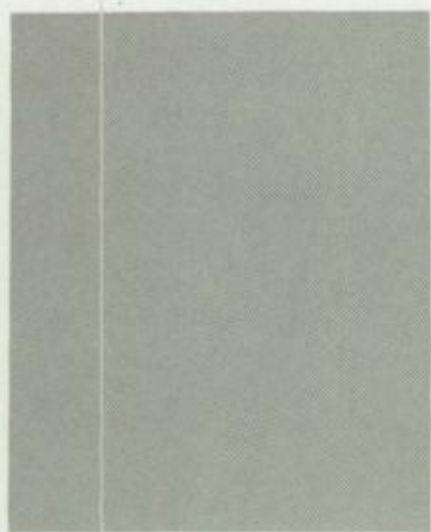

A class ring was given to Gus on Class Day by Rick Langholz. The ring was financed jointly by the senior class and the Student Council.

Gus's birthday was celebrated with a surprise party on March 18 at the Exit-Inn. After the Happy Birthday song was sung, Gus was presented with a birthday cake.
